

Restricted Programs

Nursing is a restricted program. Students must seek and receive formal admission to the restricted program before enrolling in courses prefixed: NURS.

Consult the program director or department chair for details regarding application procedures.